

Community Church Schedules Easter Egg Hunt for Today

By VIOLA KLUG
FR 5-5928

An Easter egg hunt will be held Thursday morning from 11 a.m. until noon for the primary and kindergarten groups of the Seaside Community Evangelical and Reform Church at 230th and Ocean Ave. The chaperones will be Lois Martin, Sunday school superintendent; Judy Hollowell, kindergarten teacher; and Bee Miller, primary teacher. The eggs were decorated by the new Youth Group organization.

Bee Miller, Betty Pauling, and Dorothy Hollowell, members of the Women's Guild of the church, met at the home of Mary Rosellen, 22605 Draile Dr., Wednesday evening to finish the layettes for their World Service project. Cookies and coffee were served.

Second meeting of the Youth Fellowship was held at the Fellowship hall of the church Sunday evening at which time Dick Powell, Milton Eddy, Judy and Georgene Hollowell were elected as a temporary steering committee. The group will plan out the program for the following.

As a group project the girls agreed to take over the baby-sitting chores for Sunday services and the boys, with Dick Miller as chairman, will prepare the church for Sunday services.

Following the business meeting Judy Hollowell and Milton Eddy supervised the recreation period during which the group participated in games. Others attending included Terry Yackle, Ronny Jones, Carol Eddy, Caroline Accosta, Lee Savage, Key Welliver, Carol Welliver, and John Damsant. The group includes youth from 12 to 17 years of age and is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moss and Mr. and Mrs. George

WALTERIA NEWS NOTES

Three Churches Will Stage Sunrise Services At Park

By BETTY MITCHELL

The weekend of the 17th was a busy and fun-filled one for Boy Scout Troop 241, since they spent the two days at an outing out at San Juan Camp in the Cleveland National Forest. Twenty-one boys including Explorers Robert Adams, Robert Johnson and Larry Buggein, and Scouts Mike Brewer, Carl Carrillo, Gary Clements, Gerry Thompson, Teddy Day, George La Porte, Mike Monaghan, Jerry Petty, Eddie Ryland, George Ross, Christ Silouis, Mike Hiborne, Richard Wood, Richard Blake, Royce Freeman, Tommy Morrison, Raymond Leichty, and Mike Read, went along on the trip. They were accompanied by Robert Waegner, Bill Read, Lawrence Monaghan, and Muriel Ryland. Each patrol did its own cooking on the camp trip, and combined learning woodcraft with just plain fun.

The Cub Scouts in our area are planning a busy time for the month of April. On April 7 the Douglas El Segundo Aircraft plant will hold open house on a "Douglas Day for Scouts." The boys will meet that morning in front of the school in uniform, and then go in a group to the factory. The other big date for the month is on the 21st, when the cub scouts will have a family day with everyone joining in the fun of a picnic at Irvine Park.

Every year Easter Sunday morning is marked by inspirational Sunrise Services held at Walteria Park. This is annually sponsored by the Walteria Business Men's Club, and is given jointly by the three churches here in Walteria. This year the service will be held at 5:30 a.m., beginning with a trumpet fanfare by Jan Stanley and Dennis Harvey. Community singing will follow under the direction of Mrs. Jean Cramer with Robert Cramer accompanying. A sextette composed of Joan Furlong, Loretta Furlong, Mary Ann Vosper, Eleanor Falms, Arline Anderson, and Lois Britt will sing "He Arose." "Open the Gates to the Temple," sung by Frank Hunter, will precede the reading of the Easter scripture by Rev. O. W. Fish of the Assembly of God Church. Prayer will be given by Rev. Gene Gehres of the Walteria Community Methodist Church, followed by a musical trio of Ornel DeFrance, Sharon Buchanan, and Sarah Buchanan. Rev. L. P. Husted of Walteria Baptist Church will give the Easter Message. The Lord's Prayer will then be sung by Barbara Northcutt. Benediction will be given by Rev. Gehres. J. A. Besailey is program chairman. This is always a wonderful way to begin Easter day, so why not plan to attend?

in the form of individually decorated cup cakes (with the names of the guests serving as place cards). Guests included Doreen and Sandy Childs, Kerry Vann, Mike and Corine Sturgis, Bobby and Jimmy Haas, Leigh Greene, Irene and Chris Thomsen, Janet Bell, Lois and Kenny Solis, Colin Aiken, and Roberta Rothwell. Betty Carroll, who was ill at the time, had to miss.

The Tockey family, 22321 Shadycroft, had Sunday dinner with friends, the John E. MacColl family, of Canoga Park. All the Tockeys have apparently recovered from their siege of illness which must be a welcome turn of events.

Our sincere sympathies are extended to the family of James M. Johnson, who passed away last week after a long illness. The Johnsons live on Newton St.

The John Klugs entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. Kanagy and Miss Minnie Sommers of West Los Angeles at dinner Sunday.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Doris Dumshausen, of Winlock Dr., is ill and has been hospitalized. She is in the UCLA laboratory hospital. May we wish her a speedy return to good health.

Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, of Newton St., celebrated her fourth birthday last Saturday with a party attended by eight of her little friends. The younger set had a lot of fun playing games, popping balloons, and just generally doing all the things youngsters do at a party. They each wore gay party hats and received watches for favors. Cake and ice cream made the afternoon complete. Those wishing Susan "Happy Birthday" were Stephen, Farria, Robert, Eakins, Joey and Mike Dacey, Marsha Curtis, Connie, Mary Ann, Marilee Mitchell and Cathy Obbards.
